Vienna Boys Choir, the group that reopened the Flynn in 1983, Returns with their Holiday Show Christmas in Vienna

BURLINGTON, VT — The Flynn is excited to welcome the Vienna Boys Choir to the Flynn Main Stage on Tuesday, December 5 at 7:30 pm. Vienna Boys Choir holds a special place in the history of the Flynn. In the early 1980s, after years of disrepair, the Flynn was returned to its former glory and reopened with the help of many community partners and organizations, including crucial support from Lyric Theatre Company. When the Flynn reopened for live shows in 1983, the Vienna Boys Choir was the first show booked and presented on the newly revitalized Main Stage. The storied vocal choir has returned to the Flynn a number of times over the years and always receives a warm welcome from Flynn audiences.

Vienna Boys Choir performs Christmas in Vienna at the Flynn on December 5. Tickets are on sale now priced $35-$79. Find out more and get tickets only at flynnvt.org.

The Vienna Boys Choir is one of the world's most famous youth vocal groups, and is celebrated the world over for the precision and beauty of their arrangements and harmonies. The illustrious group of child musicians has been delighting music lovers across the globe for six centuries. With young vocalists hailing from many different countries, they give hundreds of performances each year around the world. Christmas in Vienna showcases these gifted musicians in an extraordinary program featuring Austrian folk songs, classical masterpieces, popular songs and, of course, holiday favorites. Audiences are treated to beautiful renditions of songs such as Mariä Wiegenlied, Ode to Joy, Stille Nacht, and even Day-dah Light (Banana Boat Song). The Fort Worth Star Telegram raves, "There's no more polished ensemble of children's voices than the Vienna Boys Choir." The Salt Lake Tribute says, "The angelic voices of this most famous vocal group are ageless."

Tickets for Vienna Boys Choir at the Flynn are available only at flynnvt.org.
