The Flynn Presents the 3rd Annual **snap* First Person Arts Festival*, Featuring Dael Orlandersmith, Gina Stevenson, and Five New England Storytellers January 23-25 in Flynn Space

BURLINGTON, VT- The Flynn is excited to announce the 3rd annual **snap* First Person Arts Festival*, sponsored by Vermont Humanities, taking place in Flynn Space from January 23-25. snap celebrates the power of storytelling and solo performance with a weekend-long festival that includes a headline performance by acclaimed playwright and performer Dael Orlandersmith on Friday, January 23, **snap* Stories* featuring five visiting artists on Saturday, January 24, a two-day Storytelling Masterclass with Susanne Schmidt on Saturday, January 24 and Sunday, January 25, A one night only premiere of a new work by Gina Stevenesen and an open-mic snap Story Slam on Sunday, January 25.

“**snap** creates a rare kind of exchange — one where personal stories are met with collective listening,” said Jay Wahl, Executive Director of the Flynn. “By inviting audiences into dialogue with artists, the festival deepens understanding, strengthens community, and affirms storytelling as a powerful tool for connection.”

**snap* First Person Arts Festival* begins on Friday, January 23 with headliner Dael Orlandersmith. She performs her celebrated autobiographical solo work Forever, an exploration of the family we are born into and the family we choose. Inspired by her pilgrimage to Père Lachaise Cemetery in Paris, Forever traces the legacy a daughter inherits from her mother. Tickets for this Flynn Space performance are $22.50. Get tickets at flynnvt.org.

For **snap* Stories*, visiting artists Amanda Card, Aster Drew, Catherine Ashley, Nancy Ma, and Reynaldo Piniella were selected from an open call that received over 50 submissions from across New England and New York. They premiere their original first-person works on Saturday, January 24 in Flynn Space. Tickets for this event are free; registration is required. Tickets for the snap Story Slam on Sunday, January 25 are also free with registration required. Find out more at flynnvt.org.

Gina Stevenson, a Burlington, Vermont-based artist and creator of the new solo show Caterpillar Soup, returns to the festival on Sunday, January 25 with the one-night-only premiere of this Flynn-commissioned work developed as part of snap 2025. In Caterpillar

About the Flynn

The Flynn has been at the center of Vermont's cultural landscape for 90 years. Each year, 200,000 people attend performances on the Main Stage and in Flynn Space, with 8,000 students participating in the Flynn Student Matinee Series. Thousands more discover their creative selves in classes and camps. The Flynn also supports artists through residencies, commissions, and performance development, and is recognized internationally for its artistic, educational, and community impact. The Flynn partnered with In Situ in 2021 with the mission to expand the Flynn beyond its 4-walled theater. Since joining, the Flynn has produced a handful of collaborative projects with artists from all over the world.
