"Our audiences love Diana Krall and, judging from the quality of the shows she's given us, she loves Burlington, too," said Steve MacQueen, the Flynn's artistic director. "We're very excited to welcome her back, and to bring jazz back to the Flynn. We're committed to jazz, as you can tell from the Burlington Discover Jazz Festival, and Ms. Krall is one of the peak practitioners of the form. And on top of being an outstanding singer and pianist herself, she always brings a killer band."

Diana Krall is one of the most lauded jazz artists of our time. She is the only jazz singer to have eight albums debut at the top of the Billboard Jazz Albums chart. She has garnered two Grammy Awards, ten Juno Awards, and has ten platinum albums to her name. Krall's unique artistry transcends any single musical style. She has collaborated with many iconic artists, including Tony Bennett, Paul McCartney, Barbara Streisand, and Ray Charles. Her most recent release, This Dream Of You, is a career highlight and a testament to Krall's skills as an arranger, producer, and an expert musical interpreter. As the New York Times recently noted, she possesses "a voice at once cool and sultry, wielded with a rhythmic sophistication." Nearly 30 years into her career, Krall has amassed a remarkable body of work, and she has become one of contemporary jazz's most sought-after and versatile performers.
